

Sustainable solutions to complex issues

Chapman, Fogarty & Gray Advisory is a majority Indigenous-owned firm providing strategic advice to government, community sector and university clients. We help organisations meet their policy and service delivery goals through high quality, timely and actionable advice. Our directors combine decades of experience in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations, government and university research.

OWNERSHIP	ABN	CLIENTS	SUPPLY NATION
Majority Indigenous-owned	52 685 757 831	Government and community sector	Registered supplier

What we do

01

Program reviews and evaluation

Evaluations that show what is working, for whom and why.

- Evaluation frameworks and program logic
- Process, outcome and impact evaluation
- Mixed methods: data, surveys and yarning

02

Strategic planning

A clear direction and a plan you can deliver.

- Strategic plans for organisations and programs
- Facilitated planning with boards and community
- Organisational reviews and implementation plans

03

Program development

Programs grounded in evidence and community need.

- Program design and service models
- Evidence reviews and co-design
- Funding proposals, business cases and policy advice

04

Community development

The structures and skills communities need to lead.

- Community consultation, including remote communities
- Governance support for First Nations organisations
- Capability building in planning, data and evaluation

Our directors

Perri Chapman

DIRECTOR

A proud Taungurung woman with more than 20 years in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations, government, universities and not-for-profits, leading strategic planning, policy and program reviews.

William (Bill) Fogarty

DIRECTOR

Associate Professor and Deputy Director of the ANU Centre for Social Policy Research (POLIS), with expertise in Indigenous education, social impact evaluation and applied development.

Matthew Gray

DIRECTOR

Professor of Public Policy and Director of POLIS at the Australian National University, and former Deputy Director of the Australian Institute of Family Studies. Expert in social policy and evaluation.

How we work

Indigenous-led. Majority Indigenous-owned, with culture respected in every engagement.

Rigorous evidence. Data and surveys combined with people's own accounts.

Community voice first. We take time for proper consultation, in the ways communities prefer.

Practical advice. High quality, timely and actionable recommendations.

Selected work

Client	Project	Year
Indigenous organisation Top End, NT	Strategic review of a community planning and development program. Program data analysis and consultations with Traditional Owners, leadership and staff to inform the 2025–2030 strategy.	2025
Indigenous organisation Central Australia	Homelands housing and infrastructure review. Aspirations and housing needs across outstations, with a costed infrastructure register to support investment cases to governments and funders.	2026
Indigenous organisation Central Australia	Strategic plan for a new women's ranger program. Governance, priority areas, program logic and a monitoring and evaluation framework.	2026

Talk to us

Perri Chapman · perri.chapman@cpga.com.au
William Fogarty · william.fogarty@cpga.com.au
Matthew Gray · matthew.gray@cpga.com.au

Supply Nation registered supplier
Web www.cpga.com.au
ABN 52 685 757 831

We acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of the lands on which we live and work, and pay our respects to Elders past and present.